

On July 1, 1992, the Student Right-to-Know and Campus Security Act went into effect requiring institutions receiving federal student aid funds to make available to prospective students information regarding graduation, retention, and attrition rates beginning in July of 1993. Successful outcomes of students' academic performance are measured by graduates, transfers, persisters, and those receiving a Certificate.

Of the 986 associate level students who entered Alfred State College in the Fall 2006, 404 (40.97%) graduated within three years; 305 (30.93%) graduated within two years; 199 (20.18%) transferred to another SUNY institution without a degree; 46 (4.66%) transferred to a non-SUNY institution without a degree; 80 (8.11%) were still enrolled in the Fall of 2009; and 1 student (0.10%) received a certificate. In summary, 730 of the 986 students (74.04%) who enrolled at Alfred State College in Fall of 2006 achieved a successful outcome. Alfred State College has the highest on-time graduation rate of all non-specialized two year postsecondary institutions in New York State.
