

Simplified MLA Citation Style

For more examples see the Hult handbook ON RESERVE
& the MLA Handbook (6th ed) also ON RESERVE

Book (one author; 2 or 3 authors: Allport, Gordon and Ozzy Osbourne.)

Allport, Gordon W. The Nature of Prejudice. Palo Alto: Addison, 1954.

Author last name, author first name. Title of book. Place of Publication: Publisher, date.

Book with editor(s)

Barbera, Jack and William McBrien, eds. Me Again: The Writings of Stevie Smith.

New York: Farrar, 1982.

Videocassette or DVD (title, director, and other information as pertinent, format, distributor, date)

Alcohol Use and its Medical Consequences. Prod. Project Cork, Dartmouth Medical School. Videocassette. Home Vision, 2001.

Wayne's World. Dir. Penelope Spheeris. Prod. Lorne Michaels. Perf. Mike Myers, Dana Carvey, and Rob Lowe. DVD. Paramount, 1992.

Newspaper Article

Doherty, William. "Woodward Jury Seeks Definitions." Boston Globe

29 Oct. 1997: B1. <ProQuest>.

Author last name, author first name. "Title of Article." Name of Newspaper

Day Month (abbreviated ex. May, June, & July) Year: page. <Database>.

Newsire Services (no page numbers) Often retrieved from Lexis-Nexis , ProQuest, or Academic Search Premier.

Frommer, Frederic J. "Baseball and Drugs: Official says Congress Should Regulate Substance McGwire Used." Associated Press 18 June 2002. <Lexis-Nexis>.

IMPORTANT: IS IT A MAGAZINE OR A JOURNAL ARTICLE??

JOURNALS : Scholarly, professional topics; not intended for general reader; may have “journal” in the title; usually, but not always paginated by volume (i.e. numbered continuously from first to last issue)

MAGAZINES: Topics of interest to general reader; usually published frequently (weekly, bi-weekly, monthly, bi-monthly)

Article from a JOURNAL paginated by volume (numbered continuously within the volume)

Ignore issue number, month or season, even if it is listed

Bloom, Lynn, Tony Burgess, Nancy Martin and Vincent Tinto. “Why I Hate to Give Grades.” College Composition 48 (1997): 360-71.
<WilsonSelect Plus>.

Author last name, author first name. “Title of Article.” Title of Publication Volume (Year): Pages. <Database>.

Article from a JOURNAL paginated by issue (each issue numbered separately)

Volume number (47) and issue number (2) must be included

Laver, Michael and Kenneth Benoit. “The Evolution of Party Systems Between Elections.” American Journal of Political Science 47.2 (2003): 82. <Academic Search Premier>.

Volume.Issue (Year): Pages. <Database>.

Article from a MAGAZINE

Do not include volume and issue number, even if they are listed. Abbreviate months except May, June, and July.

McAllister, Gwen. “It Started in a Garden.” Time 22 Sept. 1999: 110-11. <ProQuest>.