

SELECTED INTERNET SOURCES: ARCHITECTURE

Architecture and building Resources

Excellent list of electronic resources in the fields of architecture, building and construction, design, housing, planning, preservation, facility management, energy and the environment, and landscape architecture.

Architecture links on the World Wide Web

This gateway site includes links to sources covering all aspects of architecture, from general information on the subject to specific periods, styles, architects and buildings.

Chicago Imagebase

On this site you will find a wide variety of images and other data including plans and some elevations for the more famous built works of Chicago.

A Digital Archive of American Architecture

A selection of "over 900 digitized images of American architecture

Great Buildings Collection

"More than 800 great buildings from around the world and across history are listed ... and illustrated on this web site and the Great Buildings CD-ROM (on RESERVE at Hinkle Library) with photographic images, architectural drawings, discussion, bibliography, architect info, and live 3D walkthrough computer models."

Historic American Buildings Survey

Measured drawings, photographs, historic documentation for over 35,000 historic structures in the U.S. Although not every structure includes drawings, it is possible to search by keyword under the name of the architect and the word "drawings" to find material.

Unesco World Heritage website

The World Heritage List includes 878 properties forming part of the cultural and natural heritage which the World Heritage Committee considers as having outstanding universal value. Images and documentation are included.