

Freshmen Registration

Curriculum 520 - Health Information Technology (AAS)

Students who are starting this program during the Spring semester should contact their Academic Department for assistance in choosing appropriate classes.

First Semester Courses Full-Time:

*BIOL 1114 Human Anatomy & Physiology (Register for Lecture and Lab)

OR

BIOL 1404 Anatomy & Physiology (on campus) (Register for Lecture and Lab)

(ONLY if student has met high school Biology prerequisite requirement. If lacking high school Biology – students are recommended to register for BIOL2303 in the first semester, but credit cannot be received for both BIOL2303 and BIOL1404.

*COMP 1503 Freshman Composition

*MEDR 1114 Intro to Health Info Management (Register for Lecture and Lab)

*MEDR 1132 Essentials of Pharmacology

*MEDR 1133 Medical Terminology

First Semester Courses Half-Time:

*BIOL 1114 Human Anatomy & Physiology (Register for Lecture and Lab)

OR

BIOL 1404 Anatomy & Physiology (on-campus) (Register for Lecture and Lab)

*COMP 1503 – Freshman Composition

 Courses are Internet (on-line) instruction