

COLLEGE WORK STUDY WAITING LIST APPLICATION

Federal College Work Study jobs are part-time positions to assist you with meeting your educational costs. During the academic term students typically work five to six hours per week at the current prevailing federal minimum wage. Full-time positions are available during the summer to eligible students. Paychecks are issued bi-weekly.

In order to provide you with a college work study job should a vacancy occur, please complete this form and return it to the Student Records and Financial Services Office. Your wait list application will be reviewed for work study eligibility based on Student Records and Financial Services Office eligibility guidelines. You will be notified through your Alfred State College e-mail of eligibility as well as how to apply online for available jobs.
